

Drinking Water Consumer Confidence Report

Consumer Confidence Reports (CCRs), also known as drinking water quality reports, summarize information about the local drinking water for the previous year. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) requires every community water supplier to provide a CCR to its customers annually.

Village of Marblehead's CCR can be found using the link below.

Supporting Documents

Village of Marblehead - Consumer Confidence Report - 2023 221.81 KB

Village of Marblehead - Consumer Confidence Report - 2022 213.12 KB